Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens

COFFEE HOURS

Bringing older adults and City decision makers closer together to discuss issues of mutual concern

Coffee hours start at 10 a.m.

Thursday, May 20
Special Guest:
Peter Holmes,
Seattle City Attorney

Prior to his election in November 2009, Peter Holmes worked as a private attorney in Seattle for almost 25 years. He holds a BA degree in American Studies, with concentration in Energy and Environmental Sciences, from Yale College. Mr. Holmes worked for the Natural Resources Defense Council in Washington, DC before entering the University of Virginia School of Law, where he earned his JD in 1984. An original member of the Seattle Police Department's Office of Professional Accountability Review Board, he chaired the board from 2003 to 2008.

Tuesday, June 15
Special Guest:
Sally Bagshaw,
Seattle City Council

Councilmember Bagshaw chairs the Council's Parks &

Seattle Center and Waterfront Planning committees and is vice-chair of Public Safety & Education. Her interests include community engagement — bringing our community resources to solve problems including transportation, public education and homelessness — and climate change. Prior to her election in 2009, Sally Bagshaw led the Civil Division for the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office. As an attorney and community activist, she has focused on transportation and environmental issues, and worked to reduce homelessness and combat elder abuse.

Event Location: Central Building, 810 3rd Avenue (between Columbia & Marion streets)

Additional Senior Coffee Hours are scheduled as follows: Thursday, July 15; Thursday, August 19; Thursday, September 16; Thursday, October 21; and Thursday, November 18.
No December coffee hour. Dates and speakers subject to change.
